Senate Kills Revision of Representation

by Tegwin Dyer

Most of last Thursday's Student Senate meeting was devoted to discussing the Spring elections and reapportionment.

Campaigning for new student body officers and senators will start Apr. 1 at 7 a.m. and end at 4 p.m. Apr. 3 with balloting from 8 to 4 in Colden Hall on Friday, Apr. 3. The nominating conventions for president and vice-president will be held in CH213 on Mar. 30 at 5 p.m. At 5:30 class meetings for Senate nominations will be held with the freshmen meeting in room 213, sophomores in room 314, and juniors in room 305.

Some changes in campaign procedure were made. This year's campaign will be open with each slate allowed three outdoor signs of 150 sq. ft. area each in contrast to last year's two outdoor signs of 60 sq. ft. Loud speaker systems will be permitted on all 3 days between classes and for pep rallies at night. A complete list of rules is on page two.

Reapportionment

Bob Johnson moved that the Senate approve the reapportionment proposal as was voted upon last December and that this proposal be voted upon at the forthcoming student body election. It was debated, amended, and defeated. Those against argued that if reapportionment passed, the newly elected senators would be knocked out of their seats and a new election would have to be held.

Those for reapportionment argued that, as the Senate stands now, the Senators represent the groups they are affiliated with rather than their re-

At the deadline for filing, six candidates had registered their intention to run for the three major Student Government positions this spring:

President—Glenn Acksel and Bob Johnson.

Vice-President—Sandy Herzog and Jon Hill.

Union Board Chairman—Bob Dickey and Ken Thompson.

The Acksel-Hill-Dickey slate is backed by the former All Greek coalition. The ticket of Johnson-Herzog-Thompson is supported by the Alliance for Progress party.

These candidates will be nominated at the convention next Monday at 5 p.m. in CH213. The election will be held from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Colden Hall lounge.

Nominations for Senate candidates will be held next Monday at 5:30 p.m. in Colden Hall: freshmen in 213, sophomores in 314, and juniors in 305.

spective classes. Reapportionment would allow all the groups instead of a few to be represented and thus better represent the campus as a whole.

Variety Show Try Outs

Auditions for the Spring carnival variety show will be held April 6 in the Horace Mann auditorium from 7 to 9 p.m.

Students wishing to participate in the show should contact Jim Carmichael or Tom Lupardus. The deadline for filing candidates and registering booths is March 25. not 2 as the Missourian reported it.

The Northwest Missourian was not published last week due to mechanical difficulties.

In its place is this week's mid-semester edition with full coverage of the selection of MSC's new president.

Dr. R. P. Foster Named New MSC President at Special Board Meeting

Dr. Robert P. Foster, 47-year-old dean of administration at MSC, was named to succeed Dr. J. W. Jones, as MSC president, when he retires this July.

Dr. Foster was named by the MSC board of regents at a special meeting Monday. He will be the seventh president of the 59-year-old school.

MSC Book Fair Term Success By Co-Chairman

Following a first day sell-out and a successful reordering of paperback books for the Book Fair, held March 9-13, co-chairman Richard Smith commented "We were pleased with student interest and response. The Fair was a complete success."

Smith and Sherrie Hartman, representatives of service organizations Alpha Phi Omega and Gamma Sigma Sigma, respectively, headed the organization of the Book Fair. With the assistance of Mr. Floyd Barrows, and Miss Barbara Palling, Gamma Sigma sponsor, the committee chose books to be sold, and contacted two book firms in St. Joseph for the books.

The first day 650 books were sold and more were immediately ordered in the most popular areas. Smith pointed out that books had been ordered in all areas; art, politics, travel, drama, non-fiction, biography, mythology, religion, and other best-selling areas. The second order consisted of 800 books, so almost 1,500 books were purchased by students during the week-long Book Fair.

The project was a service project and there was no profit involved for the service fraternities. Co-chairman Smith remarked, "If students have a variety of titles to choose from, they would buy more books. I think we've proved that here. This affair is a service to the student who wants to buy books and who needs books." He continued saying that the books were sold to students at cost from the book company, thereby giving the students a 20% discount from retail price.

"Perhaps the most exciting thing about our success is the possibility that the Book Fair will become an annual event. Because the student body responded so well, we've discussed the possibility of either repeating the Book Fair as it was or making a small profit which would be turned into another service project." Smith pointed out that this is the first time that a project like this has been held at MSC.

Dr. R. P. Foster

MSC Tennis Team Practices For 1964 Opener

The varsity tennis team started an inter-squad tournament last week to determine a challenge ladder for the players. After the tournament is over, the man on the lower rung may challenge the man above him. If he wins, the two switch places.

The team, headed by Coach Gregory, started working out with weights, isometrics, and running the indoor track three weeks ago. The men competing for positions are as follows: Stan Decosmo, a freshman from N. J., who won 1st place in the tennis intramurals last fall; Dean Hamon, a junior from Savannah, Mo.; Larry Harms, a junior from Farragut, Iowa; Bruce Horrel, a freshman from Carbondale, Ill., who placed 2nd in the tennis intramurals last fall; Wayne Mains, a senior from Council Bluffs, Iowa, a one-year letterman; Doug Mossberg, a sophomore from Indianola, Iowa, a one-year letterman; Jerry Newman, a sophomore from Maryville; Neil Reynolds, a senior from St. Joseph who has lettered 3 years; Bob Schaag, a senior from St. Joseph who is a one-year letterman; Richard Sellers, a sophomore from Maryville; Larry White, a sophomore from Winterset, Iowa; Alan Davidson, a freshman from Bedford, Iowa; James Graves, a junior from Maryville; and James Erdman.

Neira Named All-MIAA

Nick Neira, MSC's senior backcourt star, was selected for a second team berth on the MIAA All-Conference team recently. Warrensburg's Bud Vallino made the all-star team for the fourth straight year.

Neira, 5-11, 175, averaged over 18 points per contest for the Bearcats, even though late in the season he was usually double teamed. Neira was also high in the balloting for the Sportsmanship Award, won by Vallino.

The 6-4, 224-pound Vallino was the only unanimous choice. The Warrensburg star holds his school's records for scoring and rebounding, is a two-time All-American, and holds four MIAA Tournament scoring records.

Joining Vallino in the first team were Ralph Farber, Rolla; Paul Ransom, Cape; Charles Marshall, Springfield; and Naemon Townsend, Cape. Marshall climaxed his collegiate career at Springfield with 1,016 points.

With Neira on the second team were Tom Drexler, Cape; Bob Caine, Warrensburg; Don Ringstaff, Cape; Dan Bolden, Springfield; Floyd McMillon, Kirksville. Les Selvage, Kirksville, failed to make either team, although last year he was a first unit choice.

Other Bearcats nominated for the Sportsmanship Award were Bob Crawford, Ed Maxwell, Mike Peterson, Dave Remund, Larry Robinson, and Bill Yeager.

Cat Tales...

— with Mary Bell

MSC's high-flying Bearcat wrestlers hit their peak in Cedar Falls, Iowa, Mar. 12-13, in the NCAA College Division wrestling championships.

With the nation's top forty colleges entering 150 wrestlers, the Bearcats, coached by Jerry Landwer, upset several top-rated colleges. Western State of Colorado took tournament honors with 51 points, narrowly edging neighboring Colorado Mines, 49 points.

The Bearcats, with 14 points were only three points out of sixth place, and, according to Coach Landwer, with only two more higher finishes, could have edged Westchester of New York for fifth place.

Wieland Stars

Bearcat captain Lonny Wieland led the way for MSC with a third place finish in the 157-pound division, possibly the strongest division of the entire tournament. According to Coach Landwer, this weight class was so strong that last year's winner got only fourth, losing to Wieland. Last year's second place winner won nothing and was also beaten by MSC's Wieland. Also, last year's fourth place winner won nothing in the tournament.

Allen Packer, 167-pound division for MSC, took fourth, losing to the eventual champion in an earlier round match by the narrow margin of 3-2. It was 1-1 with 30 seconds to go when Jim Monroe, State College of Iowa, got two points on Packer with a take-down, but Packer came right back with an escape for one point. Monroe stalled out the last seconds of the match for the win and went on to take the division crown.

Arnold "Duff" Thompson lost in the quarter-finals, 3-2, on riding time. Coach Landwer commented that Thompson had the guillotine on Ron Semitis of Eastern Illinois with about half-a-minute left in the match, but Semitis crawled off the mats. Thompson was not awarded points for the predicament and lost by one point. Semitis went on to capture third place honors in the tournament.

Harvey Hallum, 123-pound division, also lost in the quarter-finals, falling by a pin to the eventual champion, Harold Gangestad. Gangestad pinned his way throughout the entire tournament. Hallum then wrestled his way back through the consolations but lost 1-0.

Although not reaching the finals, both Thompson and Hallum were rated either fifth or sixth in their respective weight classes. No matches were held for those positions, however.

Al Jensen moved up a notch to the 130-pound class and lost in the first round to the third place winner, 6-3, but not before making a strong showing. Larry Kilmer, also up a weight class to 147-pounds, was pinned in the first round.

MSC Gains Prestige

Coach Landwer commented, "I was quite pleased with our performances in the tournament. We met most of the top-rated men in each weight class in which we competed and defeated most of them. Wieland and Packer looked real good, and Hallum got some bad breaks early which put him at a definite disadvantage. Thompson also got some bad breaks.

We gained a lot of national prestige with other teams from all over the United States. We upset such teams as Akron University, Idaho State University, South Dakota State University, the University of Chicago, and the University of New York."

Coach Landwer also reported that the top two men in each division received bids for Olympic tryouts. Suggestions were made for the 1965 NCAA to be held in Hiram, Ohio, Colorado Mines, or Mankato State. Also, it was suggested that regionals be held to qualify for the NCAA.

Final point total were as follows: (1) Western State of Colorado, 51; (2) Colorado Mines, 49; (3) Southern Illinois, 46 (16,000 enrollment); (4) Mankato, 37; (5) Westchester, 23; (6) State College of Iowa, 17; (7) Eastern Illinois, 16; (8) California Polytechnic (9) MSC, 14; (10) Wheaton and St. Olaf (tie), 12 each.

Intramurals

Phi Lambs Post Highest Average in Bowling

Intermural bowling results have been totaled up to the final tournament as follows:

Individual high game, Gary Redmon (ST) 227, Marvin Jackson (PL) 224; high two-game series, Gary Cain (PS) 397; Joel Day, (ST) 396; individual high average, Marvin Jackson (PL) 186; Dan Hill, (TKE) 177.

Team results for high game won by Phi Lambs, was 719. The team included Gary Hanson, Duane Swanson, Marvin Jackson, and Dennis Holbrook. The team high two-game series was taken by the Sig Taus, 1359 points. Team members were Joel Day, Gary Redmon, Bob Schaag, and Vern Foss. Team Organization G. A.
